

2026 TxDLA Conference

Riding the Wave of Innovation

4 Easy Ways to Promote the 2026 TxDLA Conference

1. Promote the conference via social media.

Let your friends, and colleagues know that you're attending this event on Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter! Don't forget to invite your friends to like and follow the TxDLA Facebook page.

Here's a suggested template:

I'm ecstatic to attend the 2026 TxDLA Conference, March 23-26 in Galveston and April 14-15 virtually, and have the opportunity to network with others in the field of digital, online, and hybrid learning, and new technologies. Don't miss out!

3. Send a message to your friends and colleagues via email

Use our sample email to reach your clients and colleagues, or use it to inspire your own email. Does your colleague need more convincing? Don't worry, share our "Talking Points" to help them gain approval to attend.

Attend a great conference devoted to innovation in the field of digital learning. I will be attending! This event includes a multitude of sessions on teaching strategies, new technologies, program management issues, accessibility, student engagement, and more. It also provides professional development opportunities to strengthen and enhance your leadership role — it's great! To register, simply follow this link: <https://txdla.org/conference>. I hope to see you there!

4. Encourage your vendors to participate!

As a vendor, there are several opportunities for participation in our conference as an exhibitor or sponsor. Please see our website for more information on exhibitor and sponsorship packages. Do you collaborate on services and products or work closely with another company that may benefit from participating at TxDLA? Encourage them to see our website for more information on exhibitor and sponsorship packages or registration.
